5th Grade ELA Summer Reading

1. Choose THREE “just right” books to read. For ideas, select a title from the list, a different title written by any of the authors on the list, a Newbery Medal winner, or a book recommended by a teacher or a librarian.
2. Write the three titles and authors in the box below or on another piece of paper. Also, have your parent/guardian sign his or her name.
3. Bring your list to school so that you can share your super, sensational, summer reading with other readers.
